Long Lunch Auction Catalogue
Sunday 24 September 2017

"Bringing the outside In"

"Our new Library will be the academic heart of our School; a place to ignite creativity in our girls. The space will adapt to suit a variety of approaches to teaching and learning, combining the best of digital and print. This cutting-edge project is well underway and is due for completion this December."

Julia Shea
Principal

WELCOME

Welcome to the inaugural St Peter's Girls' Foundation Long Lunch, a Greek Odyssey of wonderful food and refreshments in this amazing setting of our School grounds.

Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, suppliers and community members, 100% of proceeds from today's event will help fund vital School projects. It has been an absolute pleasure to work with our amazing and very generous community members to make this day a reality.

Throughout this catalogue, you will find a fantastic range of auction items donated by individuals and businesses from our incredible community. We urge you to mention St Peter's Girls' School when you use their goods and services and we encourage you to refer them to others.

This is such an exciting time for our School and events such as this give all of us the opportunity to come together and play a key role in our Master Plan's next chapter – a new Library.

I thank you all for your generosity, and for helping us to make our vision and our Master Plan a reality.

AUCTION RULES

Auctioneer

Tim Thredgold, Toop&Toop

Toop&Toop®

A sincere St Peter's Girls' Foundation thank you to today's auctioneer from Toop&Toop real-estate.

SILENT AUCTION RULES

Silent Auction items may be viewed from 12:00pm on the day of the lunch.

Pre-bids can be made prior to and leading up to the lunch by emailing Melissa Westgate, Foundation Manager at mwestgate@stpetersgirls.sa.edu.au with the item #, your contact details (including email and mobile number) and your bid.

On the day of the lunch, all items in the silent auction will have bid sheets attached or fixed nearby. Persons desiring to bid shall clearly mark their full name, table number, mobile # and the amount bid on the sheet.

If there is a 'Reserve Price' listed, the first bidder must start their bidding at or above the designated 'Reserve'.

Under no circumstances may bidding sheets be removed from the bidding table. Each new or subsequent bid shall be clearly written on the next available line on the bid sheet. Each increase on the bid sheet must exceed the previous figure stated by $10 in order to constitute a valid bid.

The Auctioneers give no warranty on items offered and there will be no exchange or refund on any item by the Auctioneers or the donor.

The highest bid for each and any item shall be the successful bid.

The Silent Auction will close at 3:45pm and no bids will be accepted after this time.

In the event of any dispute, the Silent Auction Supervisor has final authority and determines the winning bidder by underlining the last bid.

Values indicated alongside the item description shall be regarded as recommended retail or estimated, and are not warranted by the Auctioneer or Foundation.

Items may only be removed on presentation of a receipt.

All goods must be removed on the day of the Auction unless previously arranged.

The successful bidders shall be responsible for any freight costs associated with the delivery of items.

The Purchaser shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Auctioneer or Foundation should items not be collected on time.

MAJOR AUCTION RULES

The Main Auction will begin at approximately 3:00pm.

Where practicable, all Auction items will be displayed three hours prior to the commencement of the Auction and are deemed to have been inspected by the purchaser.

The Auctioneer will be in charge of the bidding and any dispute shall be decided by him.

The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bid without declaring the reason and, in such an event, can negotiate by private treaty with any interested party without declaring the reserve price.

All sales are final and there will be no exchange or refund on any items by the donor or the Auctioneers.

The Auctioneers give no warranty on items offered.

All items are at the risk and expense of the purchaser on the fall of the hammer.

Values indicated alongside the item description are recommended retail or estimated and are not warranted by the Auctioneer or Foundation.

Items may only be removed on presentation of a receipt.

All goods must be removed on the day of the auction.

The Auctioneer reserves the right to bid on any items.

Purchasers shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Auctioneer or Foundation should items not be collected on time.

AUCTIONEER NOTES

It is an offence under the Licensing Act for a person under the age of eighteen years to purchase liquor and, accordingly, bids from minors will not be accepted. The Auctioneers are unable to warranty the soundness of any wine.

PAYMENT RULES

The successful purchaser shall make full payment during the day by cash, Eftpos, MasterCard or Visa.

Payment must be made in full on the day of the Auction unless special arrangements are made with the Auctioneer or Foundation.

Silent Auction bidders shall make full payment for items purchased in the Silent Auction as soon as possible between 3:45pm – 5pm, as this will save queuing. Payment for other items shall take place after the Main Auction.

COLLECTION

Items will only be released on presentation of a receipt.

Silent Auction items may be collected once paid for. This will save queuing later.

All items must be removed on the day of the Auction.

Please note that as stated in the Auction rules, the Auctioneer and Foundation accept no risk for items.

The purchaser shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Auctioneer and/or Foundation.

NB: Every effort has been made to ensure the details of The Foundation Long Lunch and auction items listed are correct at the time of going to print. St Peter's Girls' Foundation reserves the right to make changes without notice.

TABLE CENTRE PIECES

Today's table centre pieces were handcrafted with love by our Senior School Arts students at St Peter's Girls' School. These pieces are for sale and can be taken home with you.

If you would like to purchase a centre piece for $50 each, please see our volunteers at the Silent Auction payment table before you leave.

THANK YOU

The St Peter's Girls' Foundation would like to say a big heartfelt thank you to the following organisations and individuals who have given passion, time, money and/or in-kind support to this inaugural St Peter's Girls' Foundation Long Lunch.

We are so lucky to have such an amazing and generous community, thank you so much for buying a ticket and coming along today and supporting us!
